

November 28, 1978 Darśana with Baba Hari Dass

Edit notes: The following was typed from notes handwritten at the time of the darśana. Q denotes a question. B indicates what Babaji wrote on his chalkboard, as read by the reader, and then as heard and noted by someone present. Comments in square brackets are generally those of the typist.

[Conversation started about recent San Francisco murders, group, and political. Jonestown? Moscone, and Milk? [MLK, Martin Luther King Jr.?]]

B: Anyone can develop ego. In a group, if the leader develops craziness, then all go crazy.

Q: How can one prevent this.?

B: Use your own mind and don't depend on others.
